Dear Mr. Zat'ko,

Let me to express my deep respect to you and our common co-operation!
I feel very sorry for my absence at the international science conference “Security, Extremism and Terrorism”, in Podhájaska, Slovakia.

Unfortunately, during the same days your conference is taking part, we have the 17th anniversary of the establishment of Kiev University of Law, and are celebrating it together with the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine.

Therefore, in my name and in the name of my colleagues at University of Law in Kiev, and academic board of Eastern European Development Agency, I want to welcome all delegates of the conference in Podhájaska.

This way, I want to send the special warm greetings especially to general major JUDr. Jozef Zat'ko, who organises this conference. Mr. general major Jozef Zat'ko is giving a reliable support, inspiration, and benefit to my team here at University of Law in Kiev.

Our University teachers want to wish you success and patience on the field of spiritual and academic education of the younger generation, the successful implementation of professional and personal potential for the benefit of Kyev University of Law Sciences of Ukraine.

Moreover I want to welcomen the director of Thermal spas in Podhájaska Mr. Ing. Jozef Bajcar, who gave his space to organise the international conference „ Security, Extremism and Terrorism“.

Our University in Kiev is co-operating with Eastern European Development Agency for two years, since the common memorandum signature in December 2010. I hope that the co-operation and partnership will be fruitful especially in the areas of education, research, exchange of knowledge, preparation of common international conferences.

Therefore I understand the Eastern European Development Agency as an inter mediator for the further co-operation with other partners in Slovakia. I do understand that these are the very useful public themes which helps to develop the level of security standards in European Union.

Please, again, accept my sincere congratulations to the conference members, I wish you good health, the implementation of new ideas, new achievements in your noble work !!!

Sincerely Yours,

Prof. Yuriy Boshytskiy
